

Attend to Safety

Determine whether there are any immediate risks to the person's wellbeing and safety. For immediate assistance of police or ambulance call 000 For on-campus security call 1800 675 559

Listen and be supportive - It can be very hard for someone to disclose sexual assault. Give the person your full attention. Speak calmly, let them tell you at their own pace, without interrupting or asking direct questions about the experience. Silences are okay. Letting someone take charge of what they disclose enables them to reclaim some control.

Believe them - Do not ask 'why' questions – these questions carry blame and judgement. Validate the person's experience by acknowledging their distress. Saying 'I am sorry for what has happened' is heard as 'I believe you'; saying 'What happened to you is never okay' is heard as 'This is not your fault', saying 'I will do what I can to find help' is heard as 'You are not alone'

Maintain confidentiality - Treat what is shared with you confidentially, do not share with others without permission.

Refer to support - Connect in with the specialist Sexual Assault Services - free and confidential

The specialist Sexual Assault Services will meet the person in a safe and private place, and offer ways to help manage the physical and emotional effects of sexual assault. They can explain and assist with legal and medical options - including any emergency health care or forensic examinations, and any decisions about reporting to Police. They can assist with access to the support JCU can provide to continue with studies or work. They will ensure the person's decisions are communicated and respected.
