

Please note, if you are applying for more than one Initial Teacher Education course(s), you need only submit one Personal Statement for these courses.

Category 1: Interest in Teaching and Children/Young People

Write approximately 500 words/a page about your motivation and suitability for teaching. You may consider the following prompts to frame your response:

-
- What subjects are you interested in teaching and why?
- What does being a good teacher mean?
- What skills and abilities are necessary for learning and leadership activities?

Write approximately 500 words/a page about your involvement in learning and/or leadership activities that demonstrate capabilities such as:

- Conscientiousness,
- Resilience,
- Interpersonal and Communication Skills, and
- Organisation and planning skills

You could demonstrate by describing examples

from your: School Experience:

- co-curricular participation
e.g. Arts, Sports, debating, social justice

Projects:

e.g. curricular

